- Washington University Law School: ADR Negotiation and Ethics ('09); AAA Dealing with Delay Tactics in Arbitration ('10)

7. Please list all areas of substantive law or experience which are or have been a significant part of your professional background or practice.

Greensfelder, Hemker & Gale, P.C 1983-1996; Of Counsel, 1997-2002; Attorney, Arbitrator, self-employed (2002-present)

Experience as counsel for prime, general and design-build contractors, subcontractors, owners, construction managers, sureties and suppliers.

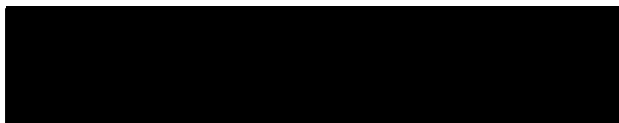

Contract negotiation, drafting, contract disputes (counseling, negotiation, arbitration, mediation, litigation); surety bond issues and federal contract disputes.

8. [If the answer to any of the following questions is yes, please explain the circumstances on a separate sheet and attach.]
- a. Have you ever been disciplined for violation of any code of professional ethics or responsibility? No
 - b. Have you ever pled guilty to or been found guilty of a felony? No
 - c. Have you ever been found liable for fraud or any other intentional tort? No
 - d. Have you ever had a professional license revoked or suspended for reasons other than non-payment of dues? No
 - e. Have any professional malpractice judgments been entered against you? No
9. List the courts and professional organization in which you currently hold certifications as a neutral, mediator, arbitrator, or other ADR service provider.
American Arbitration Association: Commercial and Construction Industry Arbitrator Panel

10. In the space below, briefly describe your experience, qualifications, special areas of expertise, and any other reasons why you should be selected as a neutral.

Arbitration experience as an attorney for claimants and respondents, as a single arbitrator, and as a member and/or chair of three-member arbitration panels. Representative arbitration matters include claims by contractor on city sanitary sewer project, homeowners against developer and builder, architect against nursing home owner, owner against commercial warehouse tenant, a design-build contractor against owner of an elevated parking structure, a general contractor against subcontractor on a University sports facility project, general contractor against municipal owner on a prison project, and school district against general contractor.

In my experience, when properly administered, arbitration, mediation and dispute resolution boards are efficient and effective alternatives to dispute resolution procedures that start too late, take too long and cost too much.
