10. In the space below, briefly describe your experience, qualifications, special areas of expertise, and any other reasons why you should be selected as a neutral.

I have over 500 hours of mediation experience. I also have advanced training in Corporate and Partnership Tax areas (6 hours Wash U. LL.M. program-Tax). I am a certified public accountant so I understand more complex financial and tax issues. I served as general counsel and treasurer for a small business and have prior private industry experience (9 years) so I understand business and contract issues. During LL.M. program have focused on higher conflict cases and strategies to overcome impasse. During my internship, I mediated small claims court and landlord-tenant matters as well as analyzed assessment data related to performance and success which was gathered by Clay County Circuit Court. I also have experience with multi-disciplinary environments and co-mediation models through collaborative law, private office mediation and volunteer mediator-St. Louis County Family Court.
