I have been a litigator for over 30 years. My practice areas have included general civil matters, construction, collection, and personal injury, with an emphasis in fair housing issues, employment law, and nursing home litigation. During this time, I participated in hundreds of mediations involving general civil litigation, commercial disputes, business disputes, wrongful death, personal injury, wrongful discharge, discrimination in employment, discrimination in housing, and other federal/state housing issues. Most importantly, I have represented plaintiffs and defendants in all areas of my practice, which provides a unique understanding of both sides of a conflict, including how to encourage parties to move towards a resolution.
