The Missouri Bar, Rule 17 list of neutrals (mediation, general civil)

10. In the space below, briefly describe your experience, qualifications, special areas of expertise, and any other reasons why you should be selected as a neutral.

Organizational psychologist teaching and practicing in the areas of negotiation and conflict resolution since 1988. When serving as mediator, first step is to structure the proceeding fairly and efficiently; then work to create, as much as possible, an atmosphere of openness and collaboration. Mediation style is non-evaluative and highly facilitative. Complete impartiality and ethical integrity are assured. In every mediation, objective is to actively facilitate negotiations while ensuring that the parties have full ownership of any agreement reached.

LaVerne,

If you get any more inquiries for a neutral who's not a lawyer, now you've got a name to suggest. (At least I hope you'll remember me and suggest my name.)
Thanks again for your kind assistance in answering my questions.

Sincerely,
