10. In the space below, briefly describe your experience, qualifications, special areas of expertise, and any other reasons why you should be selected as a neutral.

I have mediated 22 lawsuits to date and have 45.4 hours of training in Alternative Dispute Resolution. I am on BAMSL's Alternative Dispute Resolution committee.

In the 13 years that I have practiced law, I have been mainly a trial attorney. As an assistant prosecuting attorney, I specialized in white collar crime and fraud. As an assistant county counselor, I worked in the following areas: real estate, property taxation, employment disputes, municipal corporation law and zoning. As an assistant public defender, I handled various felonies.

Other areas of the law that I have dealt with are securities, business, and construction law.

Since 1996, I have been an adjunct assistant professor at Saint Louis University School of Law. I am in private practice, specializing in business, real estate and civil litigation.
